

EUAN DUNCAN SCOTT

A: Somerset West, Western Cape / Remote

E: edscott95@gmail.com

Personal Website

LinkedIn

Profile

As a passionate Mobile Engineer with expertise in Engineering, DevOps, Workflow optimization and Leadership. I thrive on crafting innovative solutions that blend creativity with well-architected software.

I value collaboration and the well-being of my colleagues and always strive to create a supportive and inclusive work environment. I excel in interdisciplinary projects that allow me to leverage my diverse perspectives and skills.

Personal Information

Nationality: Dual Citizen - South African & British
Languages: English, Afrikaans

Employment History

Entellect

Intermediate Software Engineer

August 2021 – present

I am an Software Engineer specialising in Mobile Apps, with experience in the Health Care and Financial industries. Working closely with Architecture Teams and Leadership.

Vectra Business Technologies

Software Developer

October 2019 – July 2021

Full-stack Software Developer specialising in creating mobile point-of-sale solutions and business analytics tools.

Warp Development

Junior Software Developer

February 2018 - September 2019

Front-end Developer building Hybrid Apps. Most notable during my time was the My Pregnancy Journey app winning accolades at the WHO Africa Innovation Challenge and the MTN app of the Year award for the 'Women in STEM' category. I also started to explore full-stack development during my tenure.

Education

University of Pretoria
(BIS) Multimedia
2014 – 2017

CBC Mount Edmund
Matric (2 Distinctions)
2002 – 2013